PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant.

On March 3, 2025, the judgement and sentence was reviewed with Ms. Brewster. She stated that she understood the conditions of her supervised release, signed a copy of her judgement and sentence, and was provided a copy for her reference.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following conditions of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

1

Special Condition #4: You must abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and must submit to urinalysis and sweat patch testing, as directed by the supervising officer, but no more than 6 tests per month, in order to confirm continued abstinence from these substances.

Supporting Evidence: Ms. Brewster is considered to be in violation of her supervised release by using a controlled substance, fentanyl, on or about March 28, 2025.

On March 28, 2025, Ms. Brewster reported to the probation office as instructed. She provided a urine sample that was presumptive positive for fentanyl. She denied use. The sample was sent to the national laboratory and confirmed positive for fentanyl on April 2, 2025.
